Monday, August 9 / Tuesday, August 10

A few of Andy's Favorite Short Films

If you hate a short film, it goes by quickly. If you love a short film, you remember it forever. Here are a group of shorts Andy has presented-- and loved--over the past 36 years.

Monday, August 16 / Tuesday, August 17

As It Is In Heaven

(In Swedish with English subtitles)

Nominated for the Oscar® for Best International film, it centers around a famous international conductor who returns to his small childhood town for early retirement, affecting the lives of those around him.

Monday, August 23 / Tuesday, August 24

Salute to Olympia Dukakis and Moonstruck

We salute the late, great Olympia Dukakis with the film that won her the Oscar® in 1987, playing the memorable role of Rose Castorini, wife of Cosmo and mother of Loretta.

Series ticket for the Monday night or Tuesday night series runs $150 per person, or $175 for those wishing to pre-reserve their seat. Passes are transferable but there will be no guest tickets available. Season pass is for a specific night only.
